That data is from 2004, the latest annual that NFLHS.com had figures as

The fascinating thing almost this list is that the states that produce the most NFL?ers are those whose populations have lofty proportions of African-Americans, which stands to reason, given that the NFL has such a high ratio of African players That means that the Southeastern states are the big producers of actors iSD and surprisingly that Texas and California, generally believed to be the World Capitals of Pro Football, aren't nearly as football-mad as areas like Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina and, amazingly, Washington, D.C.

Or,make your own nfl jersey,as that matter, Hawaii,nba jersey for sale, with its enormous Pacific Islander population.
